

In the Workspace, you will see a table that shows all your stock transactions.

Note that if you had to take an emergency loan in the previous quarter, the loan shark will now own shares in your company. His stock would appear in the list of stock transactions. The emergency loan will be paid off automatically, as soon as you have a positive cash balance. However, the loan shark will keep his shares forever.