

The Customer Union is an independent international product-rating service that performs objective evaluations of new products across a host of business and consumer industries. These reports will provide you with an assessment of all brands offered in the previous quarter by segment. This assessment is driven by brand ratings.

YOUR TASK

In the reports, you can see at a glance which brands passed and which did not meet the evaluators' minimum requirements.